

Our Dead.

CRAY.—Dec. 20, 1894, at Lastine, Or., Margaret J., wife of George W. Cray. She was born Jan. 15, 1842, married May 12, 1868, and was the mother of seven children, five of whom are living and mourning the loss of a devoted, self-sacrificing mother. She professed a living faith in her Saviour, and joined the Brethren church at Auburn, Ill., and was baptized by brother J. Swinehart about ten years ago. She honored her profession by living a pure Christian life, and never once wavered in her belief, but died full of faith and hope of a blessed immortality when Jesus comes. C. P. F.

EYMAN.—Jan. 21, 1895, Edna, consort of brother Charles Eyman, aged 25 years. Deceased was a member of the Friends' Association, and leaves an aged mother, two brothers, one sister, husband and one little daughter, besides a host of friends to mourn her loss. Funeral conducted by Rev. E. Henderson assisted by the writer.

KIRBY.—Dec. 15, 1894, at Forestville, Va., sister Eleanora Kirby, aged 50 years 3 months and 28 days. She was the mother of eleven children and her life was an exemplary one. In her protracted illness she fully manifested a patient and quiet disposition. Our loss we feel is her gain. E. B. SHAVER.

KIMMEL.—Dec. 29, 1894, at McLouth, Kans., sister Leah Kimmel, aged 66 years, 9 months and 2 days. She was the daughter of David Reigel, and was born in Berks County Pa., April 27, 1828, and emigrated with her father and mother to Montgomery County, O., in 1832. Was married to David Kimmel Jan. 18, 1849, and united with the German Baptist church the same year. Sister Kimmel was strong in her convictions of the religion of Christ as understood and practiced by the church of her choice for almost forty-six years. Her confidence in Christ was unwavering as her Redeemer. She intensely desired the anointing of oil in the name of the Lord according to James 5: 15, which was administered by the Elders of the church about two weeks before her death after which she relinquished all earthly interest and firmly fixed her affection upon the great beyond and departed this life with the bright hope of a glorious immortality beyond the silent abode of the departed. Peace to her ashes.

ELDER DAVID KIMMEL,
SUSAN R. BLACK.

ASKEW.—Jan. 31, 1895, at Adrian, Mo., Roberta Ellen, daughter of Robert and Maggie Askew, aged 14 years, 7 months and 16 days. Deceased was not a member of the church, but told her father she was ready to go. The last words she spoke was, "Lord save me," and then calmly passed away. Funeral conducted by the writer, from Rev. 21: 4, "And there shall be no more death."
